

AS Wycombe Wanderers favourite Kevin O'Brien left the club this week, the news was announced of another new player at the club in Brian Langfield, who signed on from Maidenhead United last week.

Langfield left United with Peter Spittle last week and both are expected to turn out tonight (Tuesday) against Chesham United at Loakes Park in the Premier Midweek Floodlight League.

Formerly with Alton Town, Langfield, 22, played at Walton and Hersham for several seasons before joining the Magpies at York Road.

Wycombe manager Brian Lee will probably bring in Tony Amos and Mick Holifield into the front line tonight to continue his search for the right formula upfront.

Chesham United's recent signing from Aylesbury, Tom Johnson is out of the team tonight as he is playing for the Combined Services. His place is taken by Tony Last, who was with Amersham Town last term.

After a poor start to the season, United have been returning some useful results recently, including Athenian League, Division One victories over Aylesbury, Carshalton and Staines.

However, they have yet to win in the Premier Midweek League with three draws and two defeats from their five matches. Top goalscorers are Ken Beaven, who played for the Berks and Bucks F.A. recently and Dave Le Sage.
